Dear Mr William Dawson

I had a sharp attack of illness in the Spring and as soon as I was well enough to travel a month ago, I came abroad to that my answer to your letter has been duly delivered.

It will give me very much pleasure to propose my old friend, you are for the Dellorah of the Royal Society He has quite fulfilled the promise of his youth There never was a harder working student.

Nothing need be done at present as there is no meeting of the Society before

November - & the ~~next~~ next election takes place in June 1889. I hope to be home in October at latest.

It is a matter of very great regret to me that I am forbidden to appear at the International Zoological Congress. But I am troubled with a weak & dilated heart & my doctor prohibit all exertion, body a mental, you will find to come — and I am meaning to slowly that I began to think that 'some time' will be a long time

My wife writes with me in kind regards to Ladys Dawson & myself & you in

Very
yours very truly

J. A. Mulvey

I wish to hear to Prof. Bonney
