July 19th 1888

Dear Sir William,

I should be glad,
if the Trustees would accept it, to tender my resignation of my position in the Trafalgar Institute, I complained to you before I left of my dissatisfaction on several points in connection with

BEAUFORT
KINGDON ROAD
WEST HAMPSHIRE

My position since Mas & this coupled with the rough crossing of the Atlantic which gave a great shock to my nervous system & general health makes me unwilling, if I can avoid it, to risk the effects of a return voyage. I have the interests of the Institute at heart & should be glad to advertise for a teacher to fill my place interview applicants should the Trustees desire it or should they not be willing to accept my resignation at this time I must of course return though I could not say whether I should be strong enough to perform all duties for some time on returning, as I have been far from well since I arrived home & have been advised not to go through a Canadian winter again if I can possibly help it.

Thanking you for your courtesy to me, & waiting your kind early reply that I may know what arrangements to make.
I am yours faithfully
