St John N.B.
21 July 1888

Hope this will find you comfortably, home. I send by mail pamphlet that came for you this <sup>(also paper)</sup> A.M. which reminded me of the <sup>little book</sup> ~~pamphlet~~ that I handed you when you arrived Footprints &c by J. W. Lawrence I did not see this gentleman at the Reception, where you expected to acknowledge the gift; you probably had not opportunity to acknowledge his kindness. If so perhaps you will send a little note or line to his address, 91 King Street, St John. Desiring that you will offer my best wishes to Lady Dawson and your daughter I remain yours my truly
G. F. M.
