

Hamilton

McGill College

August 3rd 1888

Sir William Dawson

Dear Sir

Enclosed you will find fifty dollars, I retain the other twenty five in accordance with your instructions.

Clendenning states that the stove was paid for; but the instructions to forward it were given later and he was not paid the freight charges.

I was through your house today and it appears to be all right.

It has been very dry here and everything is parched.

Hamilton

McGill College

August 3rd 1888

Sir William Dawson

Dear Sir

Enclosed you will find fifty dollars, I retain the other twenty five in accordance with your instructions.

Clendenning states that the stove was paid for; but the instructions to forward it were given later and he was not paid the freight charges.

I was through your house today and it appears to be all right.

It has been very dry here and everything is parched.

Hoping you and Lady Dawson are enjoying good health I

I remain

Your ob'dt serv't

Robert Hamilton

Hamilton

Wm. Hill College
August 27 1888

Dear Sir

I enclose you will find fifty dollars, I retain the other twenty five in accordance with your instructions.

Thanking you for the money was paid for, but the instructions to forward it were given later and it was not paid the freight charge. I was through your house today and it appears to be all right. It has been very dry here and everything is parched.

Hoping you and lady are well and enjoying good health

Yours truly

Robert Hamilton