

The Religious Tract Society,
56, Paternoster Row,

London Aug. 17 1888
E.C.

Dear Sir William

In yours of Mch 17th you spoke of being able to put together some papers
&c into a book
in the summer.

If you are able to do this I should very glad to see the vol.
with a view to publication
Yrs sincerely
R. Lovett

The Institution of Civil Engineers
25, Abchurch Lane
London, Sep. 7 1885

Dear Sir William

I have the pleasure of receiving your letter of the 17th inst. in relation to the matter of the proposed alterations in the rules of the Institution of Civil Engineers and in reply to inform you that the Council have considered the same and are of opinion that the proposed alterations are advisable and should be adopted.

Amey 188

Luett
May 1888