

96 SPRING GARDEN ROAD,

HALIFAX, N. S.,

25. 9. 1888

Dear Sir to Miss

It was a very great pleasure to me to receive your welcomed note, and to see by it you are experiencing no ill effects from the injury.

I am also gratified to know that Mr. Lambie is quite himself again, as his illness was serious for some days -

I am pleased to find you are not exposing or ~~exposing~~ exerting yourself over much as yet, as you cannot be too careful in this respect - until the end of this month, when you might return to your usual occupation without danger.

It is too kind of you to think of presenting me with one of your most Recent valuable books, but I can assure you it will be much appreciated -

Thanking ^{you} for this and for kindly writing, as I was anxious to hear about you,

With our united kindest regards to Lady Dawson and your family,

I am dear to all

Yours very sincerely

H. S. Oliver
