My dear Sir William:-

Thank's for your kind letter. It was matter of great regret to me not to be able to accept of your hospitality while in Montreal. My stay was so short and my call back to New York so imperative that, I was only in Montreal a few hours. Please convey my gratitude and remembrance to Lady Dawson for her kindly proffered hospitality.

Sincerely,

James M. Terry.

P. S. I doubt not that you rejoice with me that on Tuesday we elected a noble Christian gentleman and statesman to the Presidency of the Republic.
