Dear Mr Daniel,

My wife suggests that I should mention mine in detail our present plans, with reference to your kind invitation. We find that George will be with us here a few days before eventually involve some negotiations or removal as trains may start

either on Friday night or Wednesday
day morning so as to get a day at Ottawa, before resuming work here
on Friday the 4th of January, which is an invariable
day of beginning

and I must be at my post to attend to the
multiplication of speckles that always crop
up after vacation.

With all kind
regards to you and the lady

Believe me
Yours sincerely

Mrs. J. W. M.

P.S. Our manuscript friends here are out trying to induce the Society to publish the Correspondence, which would be
