

Athens Ga. Dec 24/88.

My Dear Sir.

Allow me to introduce to you Mr. P. Max Fosberg, a young friend of Prof. Lesly and myself. I ^{first} became acquainted with Mr. Fosberg at the A.A.S., when he read a paper relating to my hypothetical work upon the Upper Ohio flowing into Lake Erie, wherein he had expressed ~~his~~ ^{unintended} ~~views~~ ^{material} in support of my views. Having been educated under the special school, I found him drifting towards my opinions. He has since taken various features from my results and carried them (applied) outside of my immediate investigation, in a manner, that makes me predict, that, if he be able to follow out his choice, he will be a leader in the revolution against the tyranny of Agassizism.

If you could give him all of your papers relating phenomena (and those of your own which you may have) I would esteem it a favor.
