Toronto

Dec. 24th. 1888.

My Dear Sir William

We are looking forward with pleasure to the arrival of Lady Dawson and yourself, either on the morning, or the evening of the 27th.

If you come by the C. P. R. check your luggage to North Toronto. You will thereby escape upwards of half an hour's shunting and dodging among rival lines. But fail not to let me know when you are to be here, that I may have a carriage for you.
The cabs at the North Toronto Station are few & uncertain.

If by any chance you miss me, note the address.
46 St George St. corner of Russell Street.

We have no snow as yet; and very mild weather; but the probabilities hold out promise of more reasonable Texas weather.

As we shall meet so speedily I reserve all matters of discussion till then.

All kindest Texas greetings from the household here to the Home Circle at Mexico. Yours faithfully, Dwight Wilcox
