

Frist Presbyterian Manse
Truro

January 29, 1889.

Sir William Dawson
Montreal

My dear Sir.

The Jubilee celebration of the Rev.
W. McCulloch's D.D. ordination & induction take place on February 14, 1889.

The Presbytery of Truro have appointed a committee to carry out all arrangements. As Co-memors of that committee I have the honor to write & invite you, to be present, and take part in the celebration by addressing the meeting. Your presence will be very welcome in your native province, Nova Scotians feeling proud of the eminence you have attained. I am informed that for many years you have known the venerable gentleman whom he seek to honor on this occasion.

I may say that W. McCulloch has expressed the desire to see you on this occasion if you can possibly make it convenient.

I am on behalf of the Presbytery Committee.

Yours faithfully,

John Robins.

Co-memor.

First Boston Mass

Tram

January 27, 1897

Mr. William Brewster
Washington
D.C.

The following collection of the W. W. Brewster 1897 collection of birds in the February 14, 1897

The object of the present is to arrange the material of the collection
to be made of the present material

to be made of the present material
to be made of the present material

to be made of the present material
to be made of the present material

to be made of the present material
to be made of the present material

to be made of the present material
to be made of the present material

to be made of the present material
to be made of the present material

W. W. Brewster
24/87