My dear Sir William

I have been detained an entire week in New York only returning this morning.

I must sail for England next week and I greatly fear the pressure of business upon me is so great that I shall be unable to go to Ottawa - I shall deeply regret this - but I assure you it is simply unavoidable -

Yours sincerely
W. Hall
