My dear Mr Mann

Your note of yesterday
has reached me here
but the lamented death of our dear friend Dr Howard with the consequent being present at your meeting & Convocation
on the funeral is to take place, as I am informed, at 25 York on Saturday afternoon. Perhaps the more convenient

you would not mind our making on Sunday afternoon either at my house or your own, as may best suit your convenience and time between two and five o'clock. If however you prefer Monday between 4 & 5 o'clock in the afternoon at my office I shall be

I have the honor to have it so

Very sincerely
Yours
Doubtless yours
