

177 Drummond Street.

May 20th.

My dear Sir William

I thank you for your kind note of today, I highly value the words of regret as to my leaving Montreal. It is harder to do it, as the time draws nearer, but the Master has many servants, and will find one to fill the gap. My joining in the struggle for a time will make me a very eager spectator from afar.

Yours faithfully

H. Marling

Madison
May 184