Dear Sir

I have yours of the 5. received this morning. You are very kind indeed to send me that hand book re which I hope get in the next delivery. It is also very thoughtful in you to arrange for permission for us to see the University which we shall be glad to do if all is well.

My friend Hon. D. A. Boody of Brooklyn with his wife and Miss Boody will be with us on our trip and I am sure he also will be glad to visit the University at the same time.

Mrs Woodbridge and my daughter have so often spoken of their pleasant recollections of your short stay with us that I know they will regret as I do, that we may not have the pleasure of seeing you when we visit Montreal.

Yours Sincerely
C. L. Woodbridge
