Dear Sir William

My cousin W. ^{Bompas} has written to tell me that her brother-in-law a W.
Beugough has applied for the position of Professor of English & Elocution at McGill College & has sent in his Testimonials I have never seen him but W. ^{Bompas} tells me

He is a splendid reader that Literature & Eloquence are his specialities. That he is a gentleman in tone feeling & appearance and a highly conscientious & patient teacher.

When in Darmstadt he gave lessons in English Literature to the Princess Alice's Children & is a thoroughly competent
man. He is I believe

now in Philadelphia, knowing that Mr. Buzynski had applied for the position Mr. Bumpas
has asked me to acquaint you with these facts
so that you might know some what more about him. With kind regards

Remain

Yr. sincerely
