My dear Sir William -

I sent you by mail yesterday three other articles of mine which in the hurry of leaving before I was unable to put my hand upon.

I have to request that if you find it necessary to telegraph to me on Friday next, you will be kind enough to address the telegraph to my place of residence here - 141, Rideau Street - as the office of the Survey will probably be closed by the time the message arrives -

I remain, Dear Sir -

Yours most sincerely
