

St. Denis
Hudson's Bay House,

Montreal, 16 Nov 1889

Dear Sir William

The two cases containing the skulls you had me send about which I spoke to you, some time back, in the up to the Redpath Museum this afternoon, and either today or on Monday next I shall send you the stuffed specimens of some foxes, Beavers and other animals now at my house with absolute sincere

on to the Museum.

The Hudson's Bay Company Warehouseman, Samuel Gullbank will inform you that the Covers are safe & under care of the Museum.

I remain
Dear Sir,
Yours truly
