4 WINTHROP PLACE, New York, 21 Jan'y 1890

Sir J. W. Dawson.

Dear Sir,

Some months ago we had correspondence relative to a lecture in this city this winter. The time having gone past for that I write now to solicit a paper for our next summer school which is to be held at Key East beginning the 6th of next August and continuing eight days.

I am particularly anxious to have you read a paper for several Reasons which will readily occur to you. You are a Christian, a Scientist, a Canadian, and a layman.

You will command attention, you will help the cause of the truth, you will interest Canadians in our work. Very many members of the Institute have expressed desire from time to time that you should be in our course of lectures.

All your expenses will be met and you will be entertained, ^{or} a very delightful seaside resort, and you will receive a Life Membership in the Society and $50. We will publish your Paper in Christian Thought but not so as to interfere with any rights of authorship you may wish to retain. Please, say yes.
Prepare the Paper, anything you have by you, and from wherever you are spending your vacation
It will be a pleasant run to Key West.

I shall earnestly hope for a favorable reply.

Yours most respectfully

Charles F. Deems.

Except in the two cases indicated the lectures are delivered in the morning, at eleven o'clock, followed by discussions, which are generally very interesting and instructive.

Key East is between New York and Philadelphia. From New York it is reached by the Central Railroad of New Jersey, foot of Liberty Street; or the Pennsylvania Railroad, foot of Desbrosses or Courtlandt Streets. Frequent daily trains leave Philadelphia by the Pennsylvania Railroad from Broad Street Station and Market Street Ferry, and by the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad from North and Green Streets. Persons wishing circulars of the Summer School or the Seaside Assembly, or information concerning hotels cottages, etc., should address Dr. C. R. BLACKALL, 1420 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

After delivery, these lectures are to appear in CHRISTIAN THOUGHT. Single Numbers, 40 cents. Subscription for the Volume, $2.00; Clergymen, $1.50. WILBUR B. KETCHAM, Publisher, 71 Bible House, N. Y.
