My dear Sir Williams

The Beaver is Mr Henry Goward, F. A., & L. B. (London) who is on his way to the West. He is a learned & good man, well known to many in England & much respected. He was for a time Professor in Spring Hill College, which, as you perhaps know, it one of the most important of our Colleges for the training of Ministers. I venture to write to you on account of your wide knowledge of educational men in America, and because any information you can give to Mr. Howard will be of special value to him at coming from you. Pray excuse the liberty I take.

I often think of the time when I saw you frequently & was Associated with you in so many that was of interest to me. I hope you are still well and active, and that you may long be spared in your most useful & admirable work. Believe me, and,

With best regards,

Yours very faithfully,

J. Stevenson.
