

Love

Ap. 19. 1890.

My dear Mr. William. I am much ashamed of the trouble given you - but you were the only friend to whom at the moment I heard of your Judge Chauveau's death, I apply. I thought the funeral to be at Montreal. Very many thanks for your most kind and prompt acquiescence in our wishes - I was very fond of Judge Chauveau. His character

had a proud simplicity that I much liked, & he was single minded and so loyal at once to his own race, & to the country at large, that his life deserves the imitation of his French Canadian compatriots.

We have been spending some time in Rome where our stay

was charged of L^o & Lady Suffern.
He now takes Name, although at first inclined to abhorinate it, because the climate is always trying to new comers. He is very well, & rides, & jumps hurdles & is instantaneously photographed with the King Queen & others, as the he was only 22!

Needless to say he gets on very well with the King, excellently with the Queen, and is considered too dangerous a person to be admitted still

What a splendid gift to the University - I was to receive for the descent - L.

with the presence of "His Sanctity" as the Pope is called in French.

I had like to hear what you think of the names of letters in "The Week" on the position of the university in Quebec. They were all written, & I want to get them in a collected form.

We find East wind still reigning here. at air - 60. Rain we had some rain on alternate days. The Queen enjoyed her stay there very much, & the servants are a pleasant people to live amongst - loyal & laborious. Believe me dear Mr. Williams with many thanks Yours truly G. Lottin
