Dear Sir William

Please read the enclosed note from Stoffmann. It seems scarcely fair to assemble the Printing Committee to make a decision which is not properly theirs to make. Perhaps the best plan would be for me to return the paper to the Author after a little while and say I have no orders to print it. I don't know the Author personally — A McCall — The paper was submitted by Sir Macpherson

The real state of the case is as shown in Stoffmann's official report "All these papers are recommended, by the Committee appointed by the Station, for printing — save and excepting no 4 and this is left for the final decision of the Printing Committee"

The point seems to be to avoid printing it and also to avoid wounding the susceptibilities of the Author

Yours truly

Sir William Dawson
