

Dresden, July 6th 1890.

My Dear Prof. Dawson,

I have just received your letter of June 18th with reference to Mr.
Preston and regret that they have not forwarded the book to me for examination. However, I suppose it is too late
now under any circumstances. If it is not too late and you care to send a letter to Mr. Scott Ormell, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, directing him to forward the sheets to me, I will be very glad to give my opinion on them.

But second class mail matter is very apt
to be lost in Europe and, therefore, I never have it sent to me.

Yours truly

Henry A. Rowland
Care of Brown, Shipley, & Co. London.
