While in Texas I was fortunate to secure some fine fossil bones of huge size. While in New - Paris the Smithsonian - and found remains of the Mastodon & others but none of the Elephas Americanus. In London last year I visited with Kensington Museum to examine their collection and find that several pieces that I have are very good specimens - I attempted like to present them to the museum of McGill. I believe they will put you great
