Sir J. W. Dawson,
 Birkenshaw, Little Metis, Canada

Dear Sir:

Your sincerely gratifying letter of August 12th receives as early a reply as possible. We are truly pleased at your ready acquiescence with our request for an original article and anticipate the hearty reception you will meet from our readers.

Relying upon your promise to have the article ready early in September it is probable that the publishers will announce your article for the October number. Can you give me the title?

As the Magazine is printed from plates it is our practice to furnish authors complete copies of the Magazine as they cost really less than reprints. Will this suit you?

Very truly yours:

Samuel Macauley Jackson,
 Editor Magazine Christian Literature.
