Dear Sir William.

I am obliged for your card of the 6th inst, and I write to say that not only are we pushing the sale of the book but ^{also} that its circulation is steadily increasing.

We should like to print a large ^{new} edition, but do not care to do so until we get your corrections, when we can advertise it freshly.

as a new & carefully
revised edition.

I shall therefore be much obliged if you can let me have your corrections at the earliest possible moment.

I enclose the reviews
given in the 'Speaker',
'Literary Churchman' &
the Athenaeum, ^(if we can find it) Kindly return the two former when you have finished with them.

With kind regards

I remain

Yours Very Sincerely

R. Lovett
