Dear Sir William

Your Bill of Exchange for the £100 came to hand all right this morning, & I have taken it to the Geological Society - where they tell me that I had better acknowledge the receipt, as the Bill has had to be indorsed by me - so that's all done - But they

They tell me that they have sent to you an account including the £10 with the accounts for Extra Copies & Freight  $\frac{16}{6}$  & Insurance  $\frac{1}{3}$  - £2.16.0

A new Assist. Secretary has been chosen - a Mr L.
Belinfante, B.Sc. & B.Litt. Paris - on his office at once, I have been requested to go on with the editing - for

The next No. (for February) -
