Dear Sir

J. F. Taylor

Privy Council Office,
Ottawa.

February 20th, 1892.

Dear Mr. Fleet,

I think I had better postpone putting my name on your subscription list for the present. I cannot afford to give anything like the sum which these millionaire gentlemen have subscribed, and must come in with the smaller capitalists.

Very truly yours,

L. S. Abbotts

C. J. Fleet, Esq.,
Montreal.
