Dear Sir:--

Chas. M. Stuart
About the middle of April I wrote advising you that the books on Bible study would be forwarded as you desired. Not hearing from you, I made inquiries and found that the publishers had sent the volumes forward and knew of no reason why they should not have reached you.

If they have not come to hand, and you will kindly advise me, I will see that they are traced, as much in vindication of my promise to you as anything else.

Very Sincerely Yours,

Chas. M. Stuart.
