Dear Dr. Dawson,

Your kind favor at hand this morning, and I beg to thank you for the candid criticism you offer upon the Teacher's matter of the Cambridge Bible sent you for review.

I may say that we had given it no examination whatever here. The copies were sent out to us by the Cambridge Bible House to be placed according to our judgment for review. We have not sold a copy, have not a copy on sale, nor have we ordered a supply of these books.

You will oblige us by keeping the copies we sent you if they will be of any service to you whatever. By the way, two other Bible Houses have just issued new Teacher's matter - the well-known Oxford Bible House and the less widely known but fast rising International Bible House, and by this mail we take the liberty of sending you a copy of the International Bible containing the additional matter and a copy of the Oxford Teachers Helps bound separately.

We hope we shall not be trespassing too far on your time, or your generosity, in asking you to kindly look them through and give us your opinion of the worth of the teacher's matter in each. We will esteem it as a very great favor indeed to have your commendation or condemnation just as you feel you can faithfully place it. We should not think of proposing this task on your time only that we feel almost certain that you will be personally interested in examining critically these "Aids" which are to be placed for good or ill into the hands of so many Bible students.

I have not had the time to personally examine any of the three, relying upon the opinions of our literary friends to guide as to which we should take up.

I am, yours very respectfully,
Wm Briggs.
