Re Phelps

Claremont, Ontario

June 23/93

Dear Sir:

Kindly excuse the liberty I now take. I have been told that there is likely to be a vacancy in the faculty of McGill University, in the department of Philosophy; and I make bold to give you my name, and some little information about some lectures in Clark University, where I held a major fellowship.

My thesis is to be published in a few weeks.

I shall not trouble you with any further information at present, but I would consider it a great favor if you would let me know should there be an opening in McJill, for which I might apply.

Should you care to inquire further about me, I would respectfully refer you to President myself, in case there should be such vacancy, & which I might be eligible

I am a scholarship man (1887) prizeman (88) and medallist (89) and Fellow (90-92) in Philosophy, of the University of Toronto, and a doctor of Philosophy, ⁽⁹³⁾ of Clark University, Worcester Mass. During the three years of my Toronto fellowship, I gave four lectures a week, in all the subjects of the department, and to students fall the years. I have also given
