Dear Sir William

Allow me to thank you most heartily for the little pamphlet which reached me yesterday, containing your interesting address concerning McGill University.

It is a word picture which vividly recalls to memory many persons and places with which my own Canadian Story is more or less associated.
We came to this city in the Spring of 1857.

Your very kind mention of my name in connection with your work on behalf of the education of women gratifies me much. The past is now the important part of my personal experience and I feel grateful to those friends who can recall any of it with satisfaction.

We hope you are feeling quite well.

With kind regards to Lady Dawson & yourself

Believe me to remain

Yours truly

Lucy Simpson
