

Rev Mr Barnes
Mey 94

14 Lorne St.

March 31/94.

Mr William Dawson,

My dear Sir:

I thank you for your kind note & its enclosure. I beg also to thank you most heartily for your generous interest in my son's application for a Fellowship at Cambridge.

It has given me great pleasure to know from the valued letters which you kindly put before me that he has won so hono-crable a place in your esteem. Should he be so fortunate as to obtain the Fellowship I shall feel that it is in great part due to your intercession, & I trust that he will ever prove worthy of your regard.

I appreciate your kind reference to the service of Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Curry left a few effects including a number of papers & two Saving Banks books (these representing some $4500.).
I took the liberty to place

The bank-books in my chuck-safe, & propose, as I do not know of any relation to take charge of the effects, to look carefully over the papers trusting that I may find some address to which I can write for information. All that I have so far ascertained is that Mr. Curry was born at Coldstream, Scotland. The impression seems to be that there are no relatives living; but it may be that an examination of the letters will result in finding some one entitled to receive the money. The expenses of the funeral should be met from the bank-account & I have no doubt that by the assis-sance of Mr. Wolow I shall readily be permitted to draw the amount.

Again I beg to thank you for your esteemed assistance & very truly, & with respect to remain, Dear Sir,

Sincerely yours
Wm. Barnes.
