Dear Sir,

Understanding that you are about to publish a work on the life of Joseph, it has occurred to us that such a book might be sold by subscription to more advantage than in the ordinary way through the book-sellers. If you have not made any arrangement in regard to the sale of this book we will be pleased to hear from you. If your arrangements have been completed, possibly we can arrange with the publishers to control the sale of the book through agents .

Yours truly,

Dictated B.

Dear Sir,
I have the pleasure to inform you that your order for a work on the life of Joseph, which is considered as the best book might be sold by subscription to some advantage than in the ordinary way through the book-seller. If you have not made any arrangement in regard to the sale of this book we will be pleased to do so for you. If your arrangements have been completed, please to arrange with the publisher to control the sale of the book through agents.
