My dear Sir William:-

It was a great pleasure to hear from you under date of May 2nd, and I thank you for your early reply and for the promised co-operation which you have given for our work next year.

I am glad that you approve of the Parlor Conference such as I suggested, and I am free to assure you that we can secure either Mr. Mott or Mr. Wishard for such a purpose. I do not think it would be well to make this a large Conference in any way, but possibly extend an invitation to the governors and to six or ten whom we would be assured would have an interest in hearing more minutely concerning the work, and the field of opportunity in our own University. But details of this can be arranged in the fall without any trouble.

I have read the report in the "Witness" of the convocation of the Arts and Science faculties, and it was with great pleasure that I noticed a strong statement of Dr. Johnson's in connection with the work of the Association. It is most encouraging to have this expressed sympathy from members of the faculty, and I believe that we are justified in believing that we would find the same spirit among many who have not yet expressed themselves. I might say that Dr. Bovey was very emphatic in his cordial feeling toward the work, and invited me a short time before I left Montreal to see him regarding building prospects. However, this proved impossible.

I have sent to Northfield and asked them to send you their publications in connection with the Northfield schools, both for men and women. The corporation have met with great success in this connection. There is a surprisingly large number of students in connection with both schools.

With kindest regards,

Yours respectfully,

Percy C. Leslie
