Northfield Seminary.

East Northfield, Mass., May 8, 1894.

Sir William Dawson,

Montreal, Canada.

My dear Sir:--

I have just received from Mr. P. C. Leslie of New York City a request that we should mail you a Northfield Seminary Calendar and such other printed matter regarding the Seminary and Mount Hermon as we have, and we very gladly send you by this mail under separate cover the desired information.

We should be glad to give you at any time more definite particulars regarding any department of the work that you may wish. If you could arrange to visit Northfield this summer while the Conferences are in session, I think you would never regret the trip. I mail you a program of the summer gatherings as announced for this year, and we hope that you may be able to arrange for a visit and so become better acquainted with the place.

I am yours very truly,

A. L. Moody

THE NORTHFIELD,

.. 1894 ..

Announcement.

WE desire to announce to our many friends that "The Northfield" will be open to receive guests from about

June 12th to September 25th.

We are planning to make the coming season the best in the history of Northfield. There are to be

.. THREE CONFERENCES, ..

As usual: The Young Women's in June, the Young Men's in July, the General Conference in August. Besides these gatherings there will be special services conducted by Prominent Bible Instructors. The New Auditorium, with a seating capacity of 2,500, will be opened early in July.

Thanking our guests for their patronage in the past we solicit it for the coming season.

We also invite the correspondence of those throughout the land who are seeking a congenial place for rest and recreation amidst distinctively moral surroundings.

Any further information concerning Northfield and the Summer Conference will be given by

AMBERT G. MOODY,

Manager,

East Northfield, Mass.

March 29, 1894.
