

27. Paternoster Row;

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS,
EXPOSITOR LONDON.

London, 12 Sep 1894

E.C.

My dear Sir William Dawson

I have to thank you for your favours of Aug 14 & 28. I duly forwarded your letter to D. Nicoll.
With reference to "Fossil Men", the sale is slow & we have enough of the present Edition to last us for about a couple of years, but it may be well to issue a new Edition next year & sacrifice remainder of the present Edition, so as to have the benefit of your additions - unless they are sufficiently numerous to warrant the issue of a new book in the same direction?

I hope we may have the pleasure of issuing your Lowell Lectures?

I am very glad to hear there is a probability of your visiting the "Old Country" next year. I shall hope to be in Montreal in June & expect to return at the beginning of July. It would be very pleasant to have you as a fellow passenger homeward!

Take the opportunity of enclosing payment for your valued contribution to Sept.
Expositor.

Yours Sincerely
M. H. Hodder

P.S.

Will you please make Mrs.
Hodder & my very kind regards to Lady Dawson

Hodder
