Montreal,

Sept. 18th, 1894.

My dear Mr. Williams:-

My little help I have been able to render you in the way of proofreading, has been to me a sort of love affair as well as of duty; and in the present instance, this has been enhanced by the very high regard I have always felt for the life and character of the subject of your biography memoir. I have no objection to your saying on the contrary it will be acceptable to me.
Yours truly,
George Brown.

Sir John Dawson.
