New York, Oct 9 1894

Dear Sir,
by Dear Sir

send you under another cover 25-day copies of my ~~own~~ paper
containing your article. It was necessary for our purpose to divide it into two parts. I send you all the copies

we have to spare.
You are welcome to these. We have hoped to reproduce
these articles in evidence in a more permanent form, but have no definite plans
yet. I regret
both the delay
in sending copies
and the fact

What we have not done for you.

I hope that the Syndicate
may be favored
with an article from you, as suggested in my last letter.

Yours very truly

IRVING SYNDICATE.

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR 1894.

THE following articles by the most distinguished writers of the day have been specially engaged for the Irving Press Syndicate during the coming year. These articles will be sent out weekly, and will contain between 1,500 and 2,000 words each. They will be sent to the papers accepting them in printed slips, at a sufficient time in advance of their dates of issue to ensure simultaneous publication. The Irving Syndicate has been established for the purpose of supplying to the press of the country "the best thought of the best minds" of the time on all questions of interest to thoughtful people.

All communications in regard to these articles should be addressed to the

IRVING SYNDICATE,

TIMES BUILDING, NEW YORK.
