

Oct. 29th 1894

Dear Sir Mr. Dawson

The "Star" man was up to see me today about the flour pictures and I told him I could give no written opinion on them, but if Mr.
Graham desired to discuss the matter, I would do so privately.
The drawings are my fault in proportion, color and want of completeness. One could not expect an opinion favorable to their publication as representations of Canadian work.

Cordially yours
W. P. Osburn
