Dear Mr William Dawson.

The meeting at which your paper was read has taken place.

A brief 2 page paper
by Professor Hull was taken first and occupied about 10 minutes in
all. Then the paper

late Editor of one of our Scientific serials and a fellow of the Chemical and the Entomological Societies. I feared to write ~~you~~ Mr. Lead. for he is not a man of science though a good reader

The Society meets and some other papers reports the meeting, but all societies suffer in the present Political and otherwise disturbed times of the evening was taken. I had hoped

The Rev. G. Whidborne
— one of the Council of the Geological Society — would have been able to read it, and I asked him 2 or 3 weeks before hand, but at the last

(3 or 4 days before) he wrote to say he was detained in the County having to baptize some adults - he lives in London.

Professor Hull has just recovered from his severe illness, but would have thrown himself into the gap but I got Mr Slater the
