Thu 9/5

The Manor House,
Chislehurst.

March 9 x 95.

Dear Sir William Dawson.

I am very grateful to you for the additional copies of "In Memoriam"
which arrived safely.
Thank you for your report of the placing of the Memorial Tablet, ~~placed~~ in the Museum
by the readiness of the

Governors of McGill - (in loving remembrance
of him, whose memory
they thus cherish.)

I have also to thank you for two very interesting pamphlets, which I have read with much pleasure,
one was sent by the Tract Society.

Truly I am in sympathy with you all in your sad bereavement, but, as you write it is only for the "little while" that we re-main behind, and then

The reunion, I sometimes think it is well we know not, what awaits us, for, we should wish to be away, —
My sincere love to yourself & Lady Davton and Dr. & Mrs Harrington.
I send by Mr. Mackays' daughter a little love gift to Lady Davton, which she will receive in due time.

I thank her very much for her long note, telling me about your dear Eric.
Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
Grace Redpath.
