Dear Sir William

I thank you very much for the copy of your very valuable essay on "The Historical Deluge," in the series of Present Day Tracts, which you have kindly sent me.

I pray that you may long be spared, in health and strength, to make such contributions to the Apologetics of Christianity and the Word of God as you have made in this admirable discourse.

Had the Babylonian Story of the Flood been found in the Bible to defend the inspiration of the Old Testament would, indeed, have been a hopeless task.
The comparison of this story with the Biblical record is no slight evidence of the Durin origin of the latter

Yours sincerely
J. M. Caven
