

July 6. 1895.

P.O. box 15.
Prout's Neck,
Maine.

Sir J. Wm. Dawson;

My dear Sir;

We are all glad to know that you are to give some lectures
for the Lowell Institute
the coming winter,
and I write thus early to ask if it
will be agreeable
to you to begin the

series of courses with your lectures, giving them Monday and Thursday evenings,
beginning October
twenty eighth?

Please fill out
the enclosed card,
and return to me
at this place, as soon as convenient.

Respectfully yours,
B. E. Cotting.
(by R.)

The Lecturer will please fill up the enclosed blank ticket—with the general subject of his course—giving his name and titles as he wishes them to go to the public—and, if practicable, adding synopses or topics of the several lectures, for the back of the ticket.
