

Dear Sir William Dawson

Now that you have returned to the City you must allow me to acknowledge and thank you for the interesting and valuable pamphlets you so kindly sent me. I have had much pleasure <sup>in reading</sup> them, some I had before heard or read but am delighted to be the possessor of them, particularly so, on account of their having been given to me by the talented author, I hope Lady Dawson as well as yourself have derived benefit from country air, with Kind regards and renewed thanks

I am

Yours very sincerely
E. G. Orkney
