

Dear Sir William,

As Gordon is out

today, I must write a few words to express our thanks to you for so kindly thinking of him, & I shall let him write for himself, when the immediate rush of Christmas is over.

Believe Dr. Blackader & I feel very grateful to you for sending him a book which will be so useful to him now, & which he will always prize for the sake of the giver. He will be very proud, as he grows older, to possess a book in which you have written your name in connection with such kind wishes for him.

Dr. Blackader joins me in kindest good wishes to

You & lady thank you for Christmas & the New Year.

Believe me, Dear Sir William,

Yours very sincerely,

John G. Beekun
