Dear Sir William Dawson.

Thanks, very many, thanks for the kind expression of sympathy from yourself and Lady Dawson which you were so good as to send me.

The severe stroke which has so suddenly taken from me my dear and only son, has, I need not say, been terribly felt; but it came from the hand of our heavenly Father, who cannot err; and who has enabled me to realize, most wonderfully, the support of His "Everlasting Arm"

Accept my grateful thanks and affectionately commend me to Lady Dawson.

I am Dear Sir William

Yours faithfully
