My Dear Doctor:

The MS. you sent came safely to hand, and I sent a note which must have miscarried, acknowledging the receipt of the paper and asking you to prepare one or two more papers along the lines suggested in your note. I hope to be able to get it in the May number of the Review, as it came a little too late for the April number.

You suggested that the MS. might be sent back to you for typewriting; but you write so plain a hand that I think there will be no difficulty in setting it up correctly. I will then try to send you a proof, as the printers are sometimes apt to slip on the technical terms employed. Trusting that you will be able to prepare us the additional articles, I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

D. S. Gregory,

Managing Editor.
