

FRANK YEIGH,
KATE WESTLAKE YEIGH,
SPECIAL WRITERS,
672 SPADINA AVENUE, TORONTO, CANADA.

Toronto,

April 28th.

My dear Sir:

I am under great obligations to you for your letter and package. I judge from what you say that you sent a letter for me to the Hall but the stupid clerk told me, when I called two or three times, that none had come. I presumed therefore you were out of town. I greatly regret not having had a long-wished-for opportunity of meeting you personally.

Taking advantage of your kind offer I will take the liberty of asking for some odds and ends of information later on after I have put in shape the material I have in my possession.

Again thanking you,

I am,

truly yours

Frank Yeigh

FRANK VEIGH,
KATE WESS

Yough
Apr 1916

Toronto,

April 20th

My dear Sir:

I am under great obligations to you for your letter and package. I judge from what you say that you sent a letter for me to the Hall but the stupid clerk told me when I called two or three times that none had come. I presume therefore you were out of town. I greatly regret not having had a long-wished-for opportunity of meeting you personally.

Taking advantage of your kind offer I will take the liberty of writing for some of the ends of information later on after I have put in shape the material I have in my possession.

Again thanking you,

McGILL UNIVERSITY
ARCHIVES
ACC. NO. 1463
REF. 604