Dear Sir William Dawson,

I believe it is largely due to your efforts that I shall be able to devote my whole time to College work next year. Will you allow me to thank you for another kindness added to those for which I have long owed you a debt of gratitude? This debt

I can never pay; but, at least, I may tell you that, if I meet with any success in helping students to strive after the ideal life, it will, in great measure, be the result of the spiritual inspiration your life and teachings have been to me.

Thanking you again for your ever-ready kindness and sympathy,

Yours respectfully,

Marrie M. Derick.
